The Bach Institute, sponsored by Emmanuel Music, Winsor Music, Oberlin College and Conservatory, and hosted by Emmanuel Church, offers an intensive exploration of the historical framework and performance of works by J. S. Bach for college-age students, mentored by Emmanuel Music Faculty. Students chosen by audition from Oberlin Conservatory and other colleges and conservatories participate in performances, recitals, master classes and discussions. The Bach Institute concert finale, An Evening of Bach Arias, and Cantata BWV 78 conducted by Ryan Turner, Artistic Director of Emmanuel Music, will take place on Sunday, January 19, 2020, at 7:30 PM at Emmanuel Church. Admission is free, but we ask that you reserve your seats in advance at http://emmanuelmusic.org/thebachinstitute.

The Bach Institute is grateful to all supporters and those whose major contributions make the program possible: Peter Libby and Beryl Benacerraf Charitable Fund, Oberlin College and Conservatory, and Emmanuel Church.

If you wish to support the educational and outreach programs of Emmanuel Music and Winsor Music, your contribution can be sent to: Emmanuel Music, P.O. Box 171184, Boston, MA 02117. On the memo line, please indicate: The Bach Institute. Thank you!
